

The Daily Courant.

Friday, February 14. 1707.

London, February 14.

Last Night arriv'd a Mail from Ostend.

Rome, January 29.

TH E 27th Instant the Consistorial Congregation appointed to re-examine the Affair of the double Election to the Bishoprick of Munster, met; but came to no Resolution, because the Bishop of Osnabrug's Party moving for Time to give in their Pretensions in Writing; were allow'd Time till the 11th of February.

Venice, Feb. 4. They write from Guastalla, that some French Deserters who were come thither from Mantua had reported, that the 17th of last Month 500 Prussian Horse and 300 Grenadiers had pass'd the Oglio near Marcaria, and put to the Sword 50 French whom they found in an Hospital; that marching from thence towards Castellucio, they made themselves Masters of the Bridge of Rochetta which was guarded by 500 French with 2 Field-Pieces, to cover the Seraglio; that in the Beginning of the Action the Grenadiers were repuls'd, but the Horse dismounting broke into the Intrenchment, kill'd 150 and took the rest Prisoners, with no more Loss on the side of the Prussians then of 30 kill'd or wounded; that afterwards 150 of the said Horse made an Excursion to Corratone within 3 Miles of Mantua, plunder'd several Country-Seats, and carried off with their Prisoners 100 Head of large Cattle, to their Head Quarters at San Martino de Bozzolo: That on the other Hand it was reported in Mantua the 18th, that the strong Garrison the French have in Gazolo, for securing the lower Oglio, had defeated a Party of 300 German Horse who were foraging not far from Mantua; and that Forrage is very scarce in Mantua. Letters from Modena of the 22d say, that the 18th the Governour of that Castle, had a Parley with the Imperial Generals Weltz and Langalerie; that this Parley lasting 2 Hours, and the Governour being retir'd into the Castle, an Express was immediately dispatch'd to the Duke of Modena at Bologna, on what Errand is not known. The Batteries against the Castle of Modena being got ready the 20th past, viz. one of 8 Guns plac'd on the Bulwork of Barco, the 2d of 12 Guns on the Bulwork of St. Francisus, and the 3d of the like Number of Guns without the Walls of the City, began to fire upon the Castle; that the Governour's Quarter was ruin'd the first Night; he sent out a Drum the 21st, to signify to the foresaid Generals that if they did not remove their Batteries out of the City he would fire upon the Houses; but Answer was return'd him, the French Officers should look to their own Persons then: The 23d 3 Deserters reported, that the Garrison of the Castle were in great Want of Wood; that the said Garrison consisted of but 500 Men; and that they had but little Powder.

Zurich, Feb. 13. Letters from Milan of the 5th Instant tell us, that the Cessation of Arms between that Town and Castle ending the 2d, the Governour of the latter demanded Contributions of the Town the 4th, threatening if refus'd to fire on it; that after he had made some Difficulties to treat with P. Eugene as Governour of the State of Milan, it was at last agreed to exchange Hostages while the Treaty should be negotiating; that in the mean time the most valuable Furniture and other things in the Houses and Cloysters that are most expos'd to the Fire of the Castle were remov'd; that 10000 Imperialists were encamp'd before the Castle, with 30 Cannon, several Mortars, and great Stores of Ammunition; but that this Artillery not being sufficient for attacking the Place, they were waiting for more. Just now we have receiv'd Letters from Milan dated the 8th, which say, that the abovemention'd Treaty being broken off, they had begun to fire on both sides with Musquets, and that the Germans were getting all ready to lay formal Siege to the Castle forthwith.

Ratisbon, Feb. 10. On Friday last an Express from the Margrave of Bareyth brought Letters to his Minister residing here, for the Diet of the Empire; wherein he gave them an Account of the Condition in which he had found the Army on the Upper-Rhine, as also the Posts and Places of Strength on that River; namely in too bad a one to be able to make Head against the great Power of the Enemy. This Express brought Advice likewise, that the said Margrave being return'd to Christian Erlangen, had receiv'd there from the Emperor full Power to command in Chief the Army of the Empire, and had immediately taken that Command upon him. The 8th Instant the Minister of Mentz call'd an Assembly together extraordinarily and communicated to them that he had receiv'd News from good Hands in Strasbourg, that the French were drawing together near Molzheim in Alsace; that they waited for 40 Squadrons and 22 Battalions more from Burgundy; that the Marshal de Villars was expect these Hourly; that a very great Number of Waggons and Carts were provided there, but were not loaded; and that the Enemy gave out they would forthwith attack Landau.

Vienna, Jan. 9. The Margrave of Bareith has return'd the Emperour Thanks for conferring on him the Command of the Army on the Upper-Rhine; 'tis talk'd Prince Eugene will be join'd in Commission with him, but that his Highness will not come hither before he has reduc'd the Castle of Milan.

Frankfort, Feb. 16. The Enemy have made a great Magazine at Weylenbourg, and fire on our Workmen who are building a Fort at Steymuer above Lauterbourg. The 14th some of our Troops began to move, and the Forces of Hesse Darmstadt both Horse and Foot which were quarter'd about Giefen, are also in Motion. 'Tis reported that Mr. Stepney, Envoy of England, has prevail'd with the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel to let his Troops continue in Italy.

Hildesheim, Feb. 15. 'Tis advis'd, that M. Printz, Envoy from the King of Prussia, who is come agen to Leipzick, has Order to congratulate King Stanislaus fitus in the Name of the King his Master on his Accession to the Crown of Poland; as also to make some Overtures to the King of Sweden concerning a Peace with the Czar of Muscovy: The Swedes continue to give out, that they will not attempt any thing to the prejudice of the High Allies.

Dresden, Feb. 16. 'Tis talk'd that in a few Days the Princefs Ragotski is to set out for Dantzick; and we hear from Leipfick that it was rumour'd there 6000 Swedes had Orders to draw together this Night near Guben, thence to march to Great Poland. Letters from Lemberg say the Czar of Muscovy had been there, and had declar'd to the Senators he found there, that he judg'd it necessary to remove the great Council that was summon'd to meet there, to Warsaw, which Place lyes more commodiously for covering several Polish Provinces and Lithuania; and that for the greater Security of the Assembly he had order'd a Body of 10000 Muscovites to draw to and quarter about Warsaw; that he offer'd to advance to the Republick 2 or 3 Millions, insist'd much upon a new Election, and return'd from Lemberg to Zolkiew.
